RE: Tankersley and Deihl. v. Lynch, et al. E. Dist. Mich. Case No. 11-cv-12847
Notice of Bankrutcy

Dear Judge Battani:

Per your case manager's request I have a attached the Notice of Bankruptcy Case Filing regarding Defendant John Lynch. As all other named Defendants were dismissed by stipulation and order filed on May 14, 2013, John Lynch is currently the only named Defendant remaining. Thus, the entire action is now stayed by the Bankruptcy filing and automatic stay.

Best Regards,

In most instances, the filing of the bankruptcy case automatically stays certain collection and other actions against the debtor and the debtor's property. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although the debtor can request the court to extend or impose a stay. If you attempt to collect a debt or take other action in violation of the Bankruptcy Code, you may be penalized. Consult a lawyer to determine your rights in this case.

If you would like to view the bankruptcy petition and other documents filed by the debtor, they are available at our Internet home page <http://www.mieb.uscourts.gov> or at the Clerk's Office, 211 West Fort Street, Detroit, MI 48226.

You may be a creditor of the debtor. If so, you will receive an additional notice from the court setting forth important deadlines.
